

Guild of Maine Woodworkers
Meeting Minutes
9:00AM October 11, 2025

Attendees: Hosted by Mark Tschiegg

Barbara White, Randall Mayse, Ron Boes, David Lee, Joe Elichaa, Stephen Hessert, John Vogt, Steve Schneider, Susan Chandler, Steve Smith, and Deb Harris Silverman

Previous meeting minutes were read and accepted.

John Vogt gave the treasurer's report and suggested ending Quickbooks and use Exel instead.

In lieu of Face book Mark Tschiegg will ask Shaun to set up a link on the members page for a forum.

Comments were made about the Maine Wood Event.

The field trip to the Maine Coast Craft School was a huge hit with some interest in attending classes.

Susan Chandler mentioned Marc Lamm being a wood sculptor would be willing to host a field trip.

Stephen Hessert mentioned Dan Faia in Rollingsford NH would also be a good destination.

Mark Tschiegg's demo of tablesaw L fences he made drew lots of interest.

John Vogt brought a coffee table top highlighting the finishing process of shellac and Tried and True.

Barbara White showed a circle cutting jig she made to make top bodies.

Susan Chandler presented off cuts of pieces from her candle holders asking for ideas to use them.

The Annual meeting will be at Barbara White's in Yarmouth Dec. 13, at 10:00AM.

Open positions are President, Vice President, Secretary and three trustees.

Respectfully Submitted,

Randall Mayse
Secretary
